Qing Yuen chicken is well-known for its small size, well-developed tissue fat, and thin skin. It has been recognized as one of the top ten chickens in China but also the best chicken in Guangdong. Therefore, our chef specially uses Qing Yuen chicken to be poached together with good selections of herbs to create a harmonious blend of seasoning. Bites will be amazed by dipping into a freshening special made sauce. Served with a hot bowl of rice with pork lard as complementary for a comforting ensemble, reminiscent of a mother's cooking.
